ROOSEVELT WARNS COUNTRY AGAINST SOFT HEAD PACIFIST

WHO ARE ENDANGERING THE RELATIONSHIP OF AMERICA UNDER NAVAL TREATY

WHILE OPENING 17TH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF NATL. RIVERS AND HARBORS CONFERENCE

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 1.—"Soft headed pacifists" are endangering the relationship established by the naval treaty negotiations, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt declared calling the 17th annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors conference here today.

Roosevelt adjured the committee to stand steadfast against the efforts of the pacifists who during the next twelve months will make every effort to destroy America's place in the navy arrangement.

Governors Miller, of New York, and Allen, were to debate today on the St. Lawrence waterway project.

WOMAN SHOT TO DEATH IN BED; HUSBAND NOT AWAKENED

(By United Press.)
San Antonio, Texas, March 1.—Mrs. B. Marshall, 40, was found shot to death in bed at her home early today by police who investigated a shot they heard.

Henry M. Marshall, her husband, was sleeping beside his wife when officers entered the room, and he had not been awakened by the shot, the officers said.

No arrests have been made. A high powered rifle was found in the yard.

MARCH CAME INTO SOUTHWEST WITH A BIG BLIZZARD

Kansas City, Mo., March 1.—March came into the southwest today with a blizzard that demoralized transportation, wire communication and highways.

The snow that has already measured a foot in parts of Kansas and extended over Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and northern Texas, was still falling heavily over most part of the territory early today.

LEAGUE LOSES TWO NEWSPAPERS IN TODD- WADENA DISTRICT

Minneapolis Journal: Just as Rudolph Lee, the chief newspaper antagonist of the Nonpartisan league in central Minnesota, enters the lists for state senator in the Todd-Wadena district, the league loses their two newspaper champions in that district. The Long Prairie Tribune, a league publication which has had a rocky career for some time, has suspended. The Wadena News has been announced to C. F. Scheers of Akely, who announces that he takes the paper "without any strings," and will run it as a Republican paper, supporting Kellogg, Preus and Harold Knutson. The News is still owned by 400 farmer stockholders, but they have grown tired of trying to run it themselves with hired editors and deficits.

Twelve Children in Five Years.
Broadsville, Ky.—Parents to 12 children in five years is the signal distinction that has just come to Mr. and Mrs. William Poteet, living here. The union was first blessed with four pairs of twins. Now a heavily laden stork has just delivered a quartet, all of whom are living and healthy. The other eight also are getting along nicely. Mrs. Poteet was the daughter of William Browning. The couple has been married less than six years.

Job Agencies Prosecution Urged
Washington—Major General Beach in a letter recommended prosecution of employment agencies which are "exploiting the people and preying upon the unemployed" in connection with prospective operations at the Muscle Shoals, La., power and nitrate projects.

Lindsey Reported Arrested
New York—Alfred D. Lindsey, alleged to have obtained more than $1,000,000 from society women, was arrested in Overbrook, Pa., according to announcement by police.

BIG FINANCIERS ARE INVITED TO TESTIFY BROKER'S OPERATION

(By United Press.)
New York, March 1.—Five New York financiers, Percy O. Rockefeller, Thos. W. Lamont, Charles H. Sabin, George S. Baker and John A. Stillman will be invited to the office of the district attorney to tell of Alfred Lindsey, the broker charged with extracting from a dozen women more than a million dollars.

Lindsey, who is under a charge of grand larceny, claimed these were members of a certain club of which he said he also was a member.

This club, Lindsey is said to have told his women victims, manipulated the stock market quotations, and its members were bound by oaths to stand by one another.

The financiers who were to appear today were not subpoenaed, but telephone invitations from the district attorney were expected to bring others to the court building to aid the cause of justice.

Deny Knowledge of Club.

Charles H. Sabin, president of the Guaranty Trust company, and W. A. Harriman, well known financiers, were the only alleged members of the "domino club" described by Alfred Lindsey, to appear at the district attorneys office today. Both denied knowledge of the club.

Lindsey is said to have told women victims that members came masked and formed gigantic plans to control Wall Street.

Harriman in his statement to the district attorney, said he didn't know how to play dominoes anyhow.

SIX DOPE RING SUSPECTS TAKEN IN TAYLOR MURDER

ALL ARE UNDERGOING THIRD DEGREE TO GET AT FACTS—
CONFESSION RUMORED

(By United Press.)
Los Angeles, March 1.—An unconfirmed report that one of two men named by Mrs. John Rupp as slayers of William Desmond Taylor had confessed, spread like wild-fire at the police headquarters today.

Activities among detectives who have been grilling six men under arrest indicated that some new development had occurred.

The suspects had been undergoing a "third degree" through the night, it was reported.

It was known that valuable information touching on the murder had been obtained from one of the suspects. Detective Sergeant Herman Cline, head of the homicide squad, was working on an angle of the case which it was believed will connect the statements obtained from the prisoner with some of the previous clues in the murder mystery. These clues, which, without corroboration lead only to blank walls, had been abandoned as hopeless by the investigators working on the case.

MRS. KENNEDY TO TESTIFY IN CASE AGAINST MADALYNNE

(By United Press.)
Los Angeles, March 1.—Madalynne Obenchain today faced her most dangerous day in court.

Mrs. John D. Kennedy, broken utterly in spirit and health since the murder of her only son, was to take the stand against the charming divorcee, accused of having planned his death.

Mrs. Kennedy's testimony in itself may not be dangerous. The effect upon the jury of the lonely little mother is, however, regarded as the prosecution's trump card. When she takes the stand today it will be the first time since the Beverly Glen tragedy that the two loves of John Belton Kennedy—mother and sweetheart—have faced each other.

Arrested 48 Years After Crime.
Tuscaloosa, Ala.—Forty-eight years after the killing of Peter Mooney at Rome, Ga., George Nichols, a well known citizen of Tuscaloosa, was arrested in connection with the crime. George W. Favors, a Birmingham attorney, who swore out the warrant for Nichols' arrest, announced that alleged disclosures in proceedings in which Nichols obtained a divorce from his wife, led to the request for the man's arrest.

NO SHIPPING BONUS UNTIL THE SOLDIERS GET THEIR BONUS

THIS WAS BEING URGED IN CONGRESS BY OPPONENTS OF HARRIS'S SHIPPING PLAN

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 1.—"No bonus for the shipping interests until after the soldiers get their bonus."

This was being said by opponents in congress of President Harding's plan for a direct aid of $30,000,000 a year to American shipping operators.

However, sentiment in both houses showed that the president by his address to congress yesterday, in his definite and comprehensive subsidy program, had broken down to an unexpected degree the long standing opposition to such a measure.

President Harding has thrown down to congress by virtually declaring that the subsidy program is the only path to save the American merchant marine.

Leaders of both parties admit that it would be unwise to continue the present plan of having a deficit of hundreds of millions to continue shipping board operations of the merchant marine. What to do with the large number of ships unless the bill is passed, is a most difficult problem.

Opponents of the subsidy bill will attack it on the ground that the federal government should not give money to private interests. They will also attack it on a plan of the subsidy advocate to make it appear that the subsidy plan will not take money directly out of the treasury. The subsidy program calls for a division of customs receipts to a revolving fund to be given to ship interests. This, it is claimed, is in reality a direct expenditure from the treasury because otherwise all receipts go into the treasury.

Efforts will be made by the shipping board to adopt the program so that it may dispose of all its ships. Should the bills be passed, organizations would have to be maintained to administer the act.

FIVE BILLION SAVING FOR U. S. ESTIMATED

NAVAL EXPERTS COMPILE FIGURES ON 15 YEAR BASIS UNDER ARMS LIMITATION

Washington, March 1.—Five billion dollars is the amount the United States will save in the next 15 years through ratification of the naval limitation treaty, according to figures compiled here by naval experts.

These figures are based upon estimates of saving to be accomplished through the scrapping of 30 capital ships, the abandonment of the policy of building two new capital ships a year, the economies effected by abandonment of work on new dreadnoughts and battle cruisers, and by the cessation of work on naval bases and other shore establishments. On battleship maintenance a yearly saving of $90,000,000 in maintenance alone is estimated.

Abandonment of construction of two capital ships a year would save $80,000,000 to $100,000,000. The third heading on the list of economies considered by the statisticians is that resulting from the agreement to scrap 13 new capital ships which when completed would have cost the United States $520,000,000. As $330,000,000 already has been spent on these ships, the saving amounts to approximately $190,000,000, which should be compounded over the 15 year period.

The last item has to do with the saving on shore establishment, which is estimated at $10,000,000 a year.

Cow Breaks Record

(By United Press.)
Montreal, Quebec, Mar. 1.—With a production of 22,668 pounds of milk, which in turn gave 1,438.98 pounds of butter in 365 days, Dekal Plus Segis Dixie, a Holstein owned by Donat Raymond, of Vaudreuil, broke all existing records.

Mine Wage Conference Off.

Columbus—John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, made known that the joint wage conference between mine workers' officers and operators set for March 2 had been called off.

Bandits Get $70,000 Loot. Los Angeles—More than $10,000 cash and $60,000 in checks was obtained by bandits in a spectacular daylight robbery of three employees of the Standard Oil company, said a report to the police from officials of the company.

U. S. RAILROAD PLANT ILL, SAYS BREMNER

RETURN OF CONTROL OVER OPERATION COST CALLED ONLY REMEDY TO SAVE LINES

Minneapolis, March 1.—The $18,000,000 railroad plant of America is sick and the only medicine that will do it any good is to return to it control over the cost of operation. This is the prescription for railroad ills prescribed by W. H. Bremner, president of the Minneapolis and St. Louis. He spoke Tuesday night at the Calhoun Commercial club.

"Think of what it means to have an industry of this value, sick?" Mr. Bremner said. "You know without my suggesting it that the country cannot as a whole be prosperous when this is the condition."

"What is the matter? Too much government in business. How would you like to be in a business where you are subject to the whim of 48 legislatures, 48 state railroad commissions, the interstate commerce commission and congress? How would you like to be in a business where your income is fixed by regulation of one body and your outgo by another? The interstate commerce commission sits in Washington and fixes prices of our merchandise. The United States railway labor board sits at Chicago and tells us what we must pay for 60 per cent of our costs, labor."

Lead World in Service.
"Not until 1906 was real life put into the act creating interstate commerce commission. In 1911 it was given the power to suspend rates."

"In the 10 years previous to 1911 60,000 new miles of railroad were built in United States. Today, the roads are operating smaller main line mileage than five years ago. The prices of all commodities increased 136 per cent from 1900 to 1910. But rates declined. And America had the best and cheapest transportation service in the world."

"In 1911 the railroads went before the interstate commerce commission asking for 5 per cent increase in rates. They were refused. They went in 1914 and again were refused. They again were refused in 1917, except approximately 5 per cent to eastern roads. In 1911 the railroads began to realize that revenue was reaching the vanishing point."

No Money For Repairs
In 1914, they began to fall behind in the industrial life of the nation. There haven't been 100 miles of new railroad since. If business returns to normal either suddenly or gradually the railroads won't be able to handle business. The railroads today have string after string of bad order cars. No money to pay for their repair. There never was a time when earnings were as low as 1920-1921."

"Why can't we reduce expenses? In 1916 the railroad brotherhoods carried their dispute to Washington. The demands which the railroads had refused were written into the laws of the country. The Adamson act added $271,000,000 a year to the wage bill of the railroad. In January, 1918, federal control of the railroads started and labor definitely was in the saddle. The railroad wage bill reached $3,700,000,000 in 1920, greater than the gross revenue of railroads in 1916."

Drastic Economies Cited
"It is popularly supposed that the railroads have been guaranteed a fixed return. Nothing is farther from the truth. The provision in the law merely is a direction to the interstate commerce commission to so fix rates that the railroads shall earn a net revenue of from 5 1/2 to 6 per cent under efficient management. But no commerce commission could foresee or make compensation for the tremendous falling off of business that occurred in the last part of 1920."

"The railroads of the country have kept afloat by the most drastic economy. Deferred maintenance has been one of the props, and there is no more costly economy than deferred maintenance."

"Now if you must reduce freight rates, further, first find some method of permitting us to reduce operating costs. You, representing the public, must either let this machine be wrecked or through congress return to us control of our cost of operation."

STATE REVENUE WILL BE SHORT 6 MILLION THIS YEAR

DUE TO NO STATE TAX BEING LEVIED AND LOSS IN GROSS EARNINGS TAX

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, March 1.—The state revenue fund will be about $6,000,000 short this year despite optimistic reports circulated that there would be no tax levy this year for revenue purposes.

This is the situation the state may have to borrow funds from the banks throughout the state before the end of the year.

A few weeks ago the state was flooded with letters sent out by R. P. Chase, state auditor, stating there would be no levy this year for revenue purposes.

Next year, according to George LaFond, of the state treasury office, the taxpayers will have to make up the shortage by an increased tax levy. The $6,000,000 shortage this year resulted from the absence of the revenue tax levy which ordinarily would bring in about $2,000,000.

Other reasons for the state falling off on the revenue, was a falling off in the gross earnings tax of railroads and another $2,000,000 decrease in revenue resulting from the failure of the tariff tax to meet expenditures.

MILWAUKEANS GO TO GET TREASURE FROM SUNKEN SHIP

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, March 1.—Gold valued at about two million dollars, 360 barrels of whiskey more than 50 years old, and a large amount of jewelry laying at the bottom of the Pacific ocean off the coast of California, is the prize which is luring a party of Milwaukeeans to leave here Friday to risk their lives in an attempt to recover it.

Off the California coast, the exact spot known only to the Milwaukee party, which was learned from an aged Indian who died years ago, lies the government vessel Brother Jonathan, which went down 56 years ago and which is thought to contain in its hold the treasure.

Resigns With $140,000 Shortage; Could Not Refuse Friends

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, March 1.—Richard V. Sipe, clerk of Marion county, resigned today with a shortage of $140,000 in his accounts.

"I couldn't say 'no' to my friends," Sipe told the bonding company as he handed over his personal property as a partial payment of his indebtedness. Examiners of the state board of accounts were going over his books and a grand jury likely will be called in to investigate the matter.

FIVE BANDITS HOLD UP PAYMASTER AND ESCAPE WITH $19,000

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, March 1.—Five bandits in two automobiles armed with sawed off shot guns held up chief paymaster Fred Wallner of the Palmolive Soap company here today and escaped with $19,000.

Wallner, in company with three assistants, was just entering the gate of the plant when the bandits drove up. Without getting out of their car, the bandits leveled their guns and told them to throw up their hands, grabbing the bag containing the money as they did so, and drove away.

DELAY BONUS CASH PAYMENTS FOR TWO YEARS

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 1.—Delay for two years in the cash payments of the soldier's bonus, was virtually decided upon today by republican members of the house ways and means committee.

It is understood that there is a plan to issue bonus certificates upon which ex-service men in time of need can obtain a loan. In the committee, this was said to be the only way out of the bonus situation.

Republican members of the committee today named a subcommittee to work out some plan that will bring in payments for the soldier bonus in the next two years, according to an official announcement by Chairman Fordney.

In the subcommittee are Representatives Fordney, Michigan; Longworth, Ohio; Green, Iowa; Hawley, Oregon; Treacy, Massachusetts.

Cut in Naval Fuel Appropriation to Stop Fuel Movement

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 1.—An order by the navy department stopping the movement of fuel on naval vessels is expected before night, the stoppage to be effective pending congressional action on the shipping appropriations committee decision today to cut in half the naval fuel deficiency bill.

This action, it was learned, in naval circles, will be made necessary by lack of funds with which the navy can "carry on."

AS A RESULT MINNESOTA LOSES $1,700,000 IN TAXES THIS YEAR

While the gross earnings decreased, net earnings increased in many cases, according to the report.

DRIVE LAUNCHED TO RESTORE LIGHT WINES AND BEER

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE PRESIDENT SAYS THOUSANDS OF CLUBS ARE BEING FORMED

FOR PURPOSE OF DRIVE—STATEMENT OF FEDERATION OF LABOR PART OF MOVEMENT

(By United Press.)
New York, March 1.—Anti-prohibition organizations have launched a combined drive to restore light wines and beer to America.

This act, indicating the long waited offensive of the wets, is getting under way, and was made public today in a statement to the United Press by William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-saloon League.

Most of these wet organizations are being formed so rapidly it is difficult to keep track of them, it was unofficially stated at the headquarters of the league.

Wines and beer promise to be the big issue in American politics in the congressional election this fall.

Other indications that an offensive have been launched are:

The American Federation of Labor issued a statement favoring modification of the dry act.

Certain advocates of the soldier bonus urged paying it with taxes to be raised on the sale of light wines and beer.

Bishop Gallor, of the Episcopal church, declared he had found a great body of intelligent persons all over the country who are asking for some kind of modification of the Volstead act.

TECHS OF ST. CLOUD
WIN FROM BRAINERD

Speedy Brainerd Basket Shooters Get Start in First Nine Minutes of Game

SCHROPP'S STRATEGY IS SHOWN

Crowd Goes Wild When Score is Tied in Second Half by St. Cloud Tech Athletes
 (St. Cloud Times)

Playing a game the reverse of that against Little Falls, St. Cloud came a first-half lead of six points and won from Brainerd. The Techs had the teamwork and the passing to work the ball down for shots that should have put and kept them in the lead, but the shots were short—the basket eye was missing. Then, too, the defense seemed a bit slow in covering the speedy Brainerd forwards and many shots and baskets.

After nine minutes of playing, during which St. Cloud had negotiated a field-goal by Mertes and two points by free throws by Gasser, while Engbreton and Hess had each dropped in two besides two fouls lifting the score 10 to 4. Coach Schropp withdrew his first team and inserted entire second team. It took them a few minutes to find themselves before they had the game in hand and from that time on Brainerd was on the defensive with St. Cloud carrying the game to them. Both teams held to one each during the second quarter, raising the score 11 to 5 at the half-way mark.

The second half started off with a bang with the Techs gradually closing the gap until the score was tied at 12 all. The crowd was wild. Heikinen then slipped one in from the side of the court. Hicks shot another foul and Hess followed with another single counter for Brainerd. The third quarter ended 15 to 13 for Brainerd.

Coates then dropped in his third basket followed by one from the side of the floor by Schield and the Techs were finally in the lead. Schield dropped in another before Hess counted through the foul route and Olds followed with two. Hess netted a long one and Coates sank in his fourth. The game ended 23 to 18.

The second half was so clearly St. Cloud's that the score would have been doubled had they been able to make one-third of the shots attempted. Over-anxiety, common to the inexperienced players caused them to hurry shots that they would have had time to get set for if they were not so anxious to make good, but they had the fight and the drive that carried them through the opponent's defense time and again, and if the ball was lost to get back on the defense speedily. The guarding of Anderson was spectacular. Leaping into the air time and again he stopped a pass going to the opponent under the basket, then rushed the ball to the middle of the floor. The playing of Mertes and Dahl was unusual.

At breakfast, a small piece of bread with a cup of coffee, tea, chocolate or cocoa may be taken.

At dinner, there is no restriction except that imposed by the virtue of temperance and the spirit of the penitential season. The use of fish and flesh at the same meal on fast days and on Sundays in Lent is no longer forbidden.

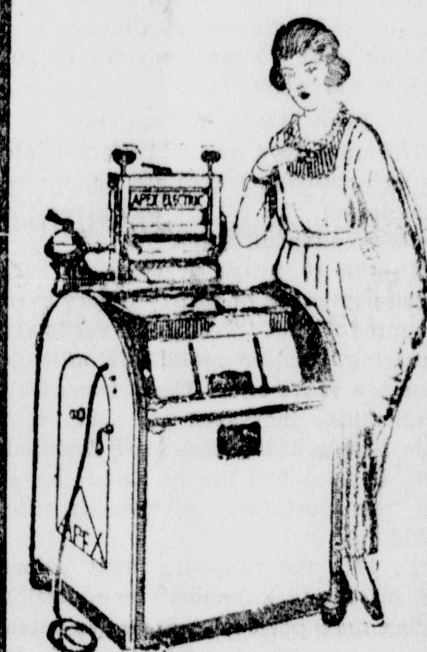

At lunch or supper a moderate collation without meat is allowed.

WALKER IS BETTER THAN YEARS AGO

Paper Read by Dr. Wilcox at Church
Supper Gives Sidelights on the Town's Early History

THE WALKER OF 21 YEARS AGO

Present Conditions Compared With Rough, Wide Open Town of the Pioneer Days

A paper read by Dr. Wilcox of Walker at a church supper there is interesting because it gives sidelights on that town and compares the rough days of pioneer life with present modern conditions and gives a laymen's view of the influence of the church on the moral life of the community. The article is taken from the Walker Pilot: Last Sunday evening I attended services at the opera house and I heard Mr. Hammond tell us what we are. Mr. Hammond put more enthusiasm in what he said that evening, then at any time I have heard him speak since he came to Walker. I believe that in those words he expressed a true feeling and meaning, it was what I would call a true and scientific roast for all.

He called us "anarchists," "religious anarchists." I never thought of that before, but seeing he mentioned it, I believe that is just exactly what we are.

To me a man who is an anarchist isn't what you might call a desirable citizen, there is something the matter with him. I have known for a long time there was some little thing the matter with us, but I didn't know exactly what it was. I am almost positive that what Mr. Hammond named us, "religious anarchists," is correct. The question is, can we afford to stay anarchists?

I came to Walker twenty-one years ago the 21st of this December and what did I find in Walker? I found 11 saloons, 25 batchelors, 550 lumber jacks, two bad houses, five newly weds and three babies. There were no young men in town of course until I arrived. There was one poorly supported church. At that time you will see, gentlemen, there was not much need of a church, minister, or any religion. There was not much need of morality, for there were no young girls and boys to practice it upon, they were mostly adults, full grown and tough, but what happened soon after I came to Walker? One day, one of the newly weds, his name was Harry Straight, came to me and said "I think, Doc, if you have time to get away from that row of slot machines long enough, something is going to take place at my house." Well, something did take place, and for some time, something took place at Harry's every few months and Harry didn't have the only home where things were taking place. I don't know whether by being a young doctor, gave encouragement to Gust, and John and Louie and Mike and all the rest, but there were a terrible lot of things taking place, little boys and girls were coming into the world so fast it looked for a time I would have to call for help!

For some time all these little infants lived at their beautiful mothers' breasts. What difference did it make whether there were 11 saloons, slot machines, bad houses and no church? They were safe. All these little fellows needed then was to nurse the goodness from their loving mothers. But by and by they begin to talk and walk, conditions began to change but still for a few years more could we stand these conditions for I wish you to know that Walker even 21 years ago in its rough infancy, contained about as many good, decent, moral people as any town of its size in the country and thank the Lord it did. They were good newly weds with character and this same influence is now shown in these young men and women regardless of the fact that we were never so very religious in our early days.

I never acted very religious, I never went to church, yes, I did go to church once and the minister who had hurried out to the door as I came through said to me, "you are in a strange place." Well, I kind of thought he was right and for that reason I didn't go to church again for five years.

Maybe I did not act so very religious now, perhaps I am not so very religious, but there is one thing I have recognized and that is, that things in Walker have changed. One of those little babies, I saw come to Walker twenty years ago, I saw over two years ago, give birth to a child of her own. The change that has been made in Walker that I am talking about, is the change from infancy to that of young man and womanhood. Infancy, which needed no special protection has changed to young man and womanhood which does.

I myself have changed from the idea that church was a secondary consideration to the thought that church is the first consideration and regardless of religion or anything else, I now know and feel that a church and the good that springs from it, is the best influence for good in any place, large or small.

Our young men and women need this influence now, where they did not 20 years ago.

That is the reason I have changed, that is the reason I am interested in the church. But do you all look in the same way and do I myself look at it strong enough? I believe that none of us yet recognize the necessity for real church influence, if we did I do not believe that running a church would be so hard. The beautiful church and religious influence should awaken us from our "religious anarchy," not that we need it for ourselves so much, but that we need it for those infant babies I saw first 20 years ago and who are now grown to young man and womanhood.

The money we give will be doubly repaid by that feeling in our hearts, that we are assisting our young men and women to everlasting happiness, not necessarily that heavenly or religious happiness but that beautiful, decent, moral happiness that is more liable to come on the account of good church influence.

We should support the church both morally and financially.

Today I consider we are fortunate in having a man for a minister who I believe is able to interest any of us. He is far above the average, he is as good a speaker as you will find in towns of several thousand. He is discouraged. When a man can think of as good a word as religious anarchist and in a scientific manner impart to us the fact that we are bad church supporters, I know he is discouraged.

I do not believe Rev. Hammond is a man who would remain in Walker long, and talk to vacant seats even at twice the salary he is getting and if on top of the lack of moral support, the church does not get financial support, then he would go, and if we can't support a man like Mr. Hammond, it's sure we can't support another of his calibre. If you can't support that sized man, I am here to tell you you can't support any one.

Today there are men giving more to support the church than they ever gave before, they are giving for its support because they have changed and appreciate the necessity of its good influence, but still it is not enough. It is absolutely necessary that we have and support a church.

THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Nickel Lenners, 705 5th St. S., Brainerd, says: "My kidneys caused me no end of trouble. I surely was in miserable condition as my back annoyed me so I could hardly get down. I had a steady, dull ache across the small of my back and if I got down, it was almost impossible to straighten again. I often got sharp catches in my kidneys and then dizzy spells would come on. I became tired and seemed to lose all my strength. I was annoyed by the way my kidneys were acting, and finally my nerves became so miserable I was easily irritated. Someone told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Johnson's Pharmacy. Doan's quickly helped me and soon cured me of all the kidney trouble."

MRS. L. L. COLBY

Passed Away at Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. H. E. Rawsam of Rt.
1, Brainerd

The Tekamah, Nebraska, Herald contains this obituary of Mrs. L. L. Colby, former resident, who for the last five years made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Rawsam of Route 1 in Daggett Brook.

The passing of Mrs. Colby removes one of the esteemed pioneer ladies who with her husband located on a homestead near Tekamah, in 1869 later removing into the city, where Mr. Colby died in August 1903. Mrs. Colby continued to reside here until a few years ago when she was persuaded by her two daughters, (her only children,) Mrs. A. E. Pike of Fairfax, S. Dak., and Mrs. H. E. Rowson of Brainerd, Minn., to give up her home and spend her declining years with them, which she did and passed away February 2, 1932 at the home of her daughter at Brainerd, Minn., at the ripe age of 82 years.

Her body was brought to Tekamah accompanied by her two daughters, that it might be interred in Tekamah Cemetery beside her husband who had gone on before.

Mary Ann Widner was born at Angola, Indiana, April 10, 1840 where she grew to womanhood. She was married to Lyman L. Colby at Cold

Mrs. Colby, in her early years united with the Methodist church and later transferred her membership to her beloved church in this city where her self and family were regular attendants during their long residence. Mrs. Colby was also an active member of the W. R. ## CANADIAN MEAT PRODUCTS

Recent heavy shipments into the United States of Canadian meat products have brought home to the packing industry of this country the soundness of the American valuation plan in determining import duties on shipments of foreign products into the United States.

The Canadian packers have found it possible to ship meat into this country prepared by Canadians paid with English money and, after paying duties at the border, to undersell the American packer in his own field. The difference in the exchange rate gives the Canadian packer a distinct advantage over the American packer. It is perhaps unnecessary to add that this lower price does not appear to reach as far as the consumer, as it does not affect the retail prices.

The American packing companies have met with this competition, and recognize the need of an American valuation in determining duties on imported meats if such industries as theirs are to be able to pay the wages American labor receives and still continue in business.

In European countries, Germany for instance, where the exchange is vastly more marked, the need for an American valuation to determine import duties for the protection of American industries is still more acute. This situation should be remedied by Congress. Our country cannot prosper unless its industries prosper, and they cannot prosper without the necessary protection.

A VITAL DIFFERENCE

There are apparently quite a number of people who overlook the real distinction between the treaties negotiated at Washington and the League of Nations covenant treaty negotiated at Versailles. By the treaties negotiated in the Washington Arms Conference we made certain specific agreements, the full scope of which is clearly and thoroughly understood. On the other hand, if we become a member of the League of Nations we would have bound ourselves to obligations not then specifically defined but which would later be determined by a League Council or Assembly.

In the common, every day affairs of life, business men are called upon almost every day to make agreements by which they and their heirs are bound, but every good business man makes those agreements definite and specific. He of course does not leave their scope to be determined by some one else at some future time. Therein rests the difference between the Washington treaties and the Versailles treaty. And all should see that the difference is a vital one, which should not be overlooked by the American people.

ROAD BUILDING INDUSTRY

The extent of the road building industry at the present time is probably not fully realized by the general public, and it will perhaps be news to most people to learn that, according to reports issued by the Bureau of Public Roads, it is now one of the largest industries in the United States, surpassing even the steel and iron industry and the automobile industry.

Statistics show that a few less than 600,000 are employed in the steel and iron industry and approximately 750,000 in the automobile industry, while over 1,000,000 men are employed in the building and repairing the public highways throughout the United States. An idea of the enormous work upon the public roads of the country may be obtained from the fact that the annual requirements of the improved roads of the United States is 50,000,000 tons of stone and gravel, or 1,000,000 carloads.

DISARMAMENT COMMISSION

The Disarmament Commission of the League of Nations, at a meeting in Paris a few days ago, decided that it was not qualified to prepare a general treaty for the reduction or limitation of armaments, as requested by the last meeting of the Assembly of the League. The Commission decided to proceed with the elaboration of a general plan of reduction of armaments, in accordance with the resolution of the Assembly.

CLEANING TIME

Editor Dispatch:

Please do not class us with the kickers or knockers as, one by one, we enter the ring with such people as Rev. Winther, Rev. Cadwell and others who are brave enough to openly discuss the direct needs in making Brainerd a better place to live in.

As spring-time is cleaning time, let us get busy as a unit, roll up our sleeves, also the shades, clean out the trash, and let God's sunlight shine in on a purer, cleaner city than ever before. Sin will not stand light and thereby may be eradicated; then prospective citizens will be the more anxious to locate here and help boost with the boosters.

There are only two sides to life, our's and God's. Human beings, as Christians are responsible for the righteousness of the world that includes our little city of Brainerd. We must work together with one accord, get behind the movement and push, and be good for something, doing for others as we wish they would for us. Let onward and upward be our motto, blazing the trail that our young people may follow.

Right here, comes the appeal to fathers and mothers to know, not only, where are our boys tonight, but where are our girls tonight also. Where are fathers and mothers, and guardians of the youth of our land?

Many grave dangers are confronting the world today in the quiet, sure working government of modernism. The time is at hand when welfare-workers must take a stand in the ranks of the faithful in unflinching defense of the truth. To receive the power for action we must keep in touch with our Great Leader.

A modern religion presented in a weak, scriptural form will not save a confused, deluded people facing a day of peril already breaking on a sin-blinded world. We must have leaders whose heart motives are of righteous origin and whose lives ring true, whatever the cost.

Many years ago our busy little city of today was dubbed "The Black

BRAINERD TO BE RE-RATED SOON

General Inspection Bureau of Minneapolis Has Force of Inspectors at Work Here

INSPECT THE BUSINESS SECTION

Tendency May be Towards Lower Rates Because of Better Fire Protection on in Brainerd

A new rating is to be given Brainerd business property by the General Inspection Bureau of Minneapolis which acts for all the fire insurance companies doing business in the state. Charles Harbin, inspector, is the head of a crew of four men who will cover the business section of the city.

The city is to be re-classified because of the improvements made in waterworks, water tower, better fire pressure, etc., all tending to a reduction in fire insurance rates. Mr. Harbin said although the tendency of rates will be downward, there may be other local conditions which may enter into risks, so not too much assurance must be placed on the idea that there will be a great reduction in insurance rates.

The survey will take from three to four weeks. The men are experienced in inspecting buildings and looking for fire hazards. There will be no new map making, the Sanborn Map Company handling that phase. Attention is paid to the construction of buildings, occupancy and surroundings, heating devices, chimney construction, etc. There will be no examination of the residence section of Brainerd.

CROW WING COUNTY TO INCREASE AREA

Cass County Townships Favor Affiliation With This County, Petitions Circulated

TWIST IN TAX LAWS IS GIVEN

Cass County Levied Taxes on Sections Voting to be Set Apart from Cass County

The Minneapolis Journal of Monday contained the following clipping:

Walker, Feb. 25.—Can a property owner beat the tax collector by sitting tight and letting a quirk in existing law put him in the clear? That is a question to be settled here.

The petition asking that the dividing of Cass county be voted on in November, 1922, was filed in June, 1921, and the tax levy for 1921 was made by the county commissioners of Cass county in July, 1921. According to statute, it is held, the tax levy is illegal, for the reason that the law specifically prohibits the levy of any taxes on lands to be voted on and set apart as another county. This means that the people who live in the territory that it is desired to take away from Cass county, can not be compelled to pay their 1921 taxes.

A movement is on foot in Brainerd to obtain signers to a petition asking that certain townships now comprising a part of southern Cass county be annexed to Crow Wing county, with Brainerd as the county seat.

Senator Hilding Swanson called this matter to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce on September 28th and it was referred to the legislative committee of which G. S. Swanson is chairman. No action was taken at that time, but the senator has been at work on the project and has all the information available covering this matter.

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce received a letter from G. W. French of Minneapolis who asks how he may get his name on a petition favoring this annexation together with three other names of owners of property on Gull lake.

COMMUNITY SALES PLAN IS BROACHED

House and Social Committee of Chamber of Commerce Provides Dinner for 80 Business Men

TRADE DEVELOPMENT URGED

Con O'Brien Donated $25 Toward the Next Supper to be Held in the Near Future

About 80 of the representative business men sat down to a dinner provided by the House and Social Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night and listened to the description of the plan of community sales having for its object, extension of the trade limits of our merchants and stimulating the trade with the rural community.

After a thorough discussion of the plan a vote was taken to decide if such a campaign should be started and all but six voted in favor of beginning the campaign.

Because it seemed important that this vote should be unanimous, upon motion it was decided to defer action until further information could be obtained from towns who have tried the plan and this information submitted at a meeting to be called later, at which time another dinner would be served.

Con O'Brien donated $25 toward the next supper.

AND SECOND NIGHT ANOTHER SUCCESS

Brainerd Lodge of Elks No. 615 Scores Another Heavy Attendance at Two Shows Tuesday

NEW PARK WAS CROWDED AGAIN

Pictures and Home Talent Vaudeville Captivate Brainerd, May Be Taken to Crosby

An again Brainerd lodge of Elks No. 615 had a big night Tuesday with their pictures and home talent vaudeville entitled "Out at Parkerville." Clyde E. Parker, chairman, and his house and social committee, in charge of the show were given many compliments.

People started flocking to the first show at 6:20 p. m. All the participants repeated their successes of Monday evening, first night, and applause was liberal.

A request has come from the iron range to give the whole show in Crosby and this is being considered by Clyde E. Parker. The best time for it, he said, is when automobile travel will be resumed with the range.

Publicly Exalted Ruler Hoffbauer thanked all patrons for attending the show, praised the spirit of Elksdom, and its friends in the hearty cooperation shown, and thanked all taking part in the show and assisting who had made "Out at Parkerville" such a remarkable success.

Thursday Night's Meeting

The first regular meeting of the Elks in March will be Thursday evening, March 2. There will be election of officers. For Exalted Ruler there was but one nomination made that of J. J. Nolan to succeed John A. Hoffbauer. The latter was named a candidate for secretary of the lodge and the other two contestants for the secretaryship are Axel E. Fall and Harry J. Carlson.

The house and social committee through Clyde E. Parker will report on the successful show given. There will also be a report on pool table and other equipment prices.

The social session will be a notable one, the center of excitement being a wrestling bout staged between "Blackie" Clark of Brainerd and "Sailor Brown" of Staples. It will be of championship caliber. Andy Smacker helped the lodge get this bout.

And the ranch. This is never forgotten at a big Elks meeting. Many of the range brothers are expected.

Remembered With Flowers

Brainerd Elks make it a point to remember the living with flowers. In line with this idea Brainerd lodge sent a beautiful bouquet of the prettiest posies to Mrs. Carrie Chapman who celebrated her ninetieth birthday. She has long been a resident of Brainerd.

Famous Ornithologists Dead.

West Chester, Pa.—Thomas H. Jackson, aged 74, nationally known as a collector of birds and bird eggs died at his home after a three days' illness. Mr. Jackson was regarded as an authority by many ornithologists and his collection of eggs is said to have been one of the finest in the country.

WOODMEN WORKING FOR CLASS OF 100

To be Initiated in Brainerd Camp No. 2337 of the Modern Woodmen of America March 10

DISTRICT DEPUTY IS HERE

Hon. J. P. Shaver of Long Prairie has Official Headquarters at Ransford Hotel

The initiation of a class of thirty in Brainerd Camp of Modern Woodmen of America last Friday was only a starter of what District Deputy J. P. Shaver of Long Prairie and assistants expect to do in Brainerd.

He has set the mark for a class of 100 to be initiated in Brainerd Friday, March 10. In this new class twenty have already been enrolled as candidates. The examining physicians are Dr. D. E. Nelson, Dr. Joseph Nicholson and Dr. Gerber.

In the class of 30 the insurance written amounted to $37,500, and in the majority of cases represented additional insurance taken out by the candidates. Of the list only four had no insurance whatever before being taken by the Woodmen.

District Deputy Shaver presided as Consul at the initiatory ceremonies and State Escort H. R. Mitchell of Long Prairie headed the initiatory team. The work was wonderfully put on and elicited high praise. The class of 100 will also be initiated under the direction of State Escort Mitchell.

District Deputy Shaver has his official headquarters at the Ransford hotel where he gets his reports on work in the Brainerd district and directs the campaign.

SANDVIG CHARGES DENIED

Affidavit of Prejudice Declared Exhausted by Judge McClenahan

Charles R. Sandvig of Belgrade yesterday morning in St. Cloud appeared in district court to answer to a charge of criminal libel preferred by the state. The defendant found Judge McClenahan, of Brainerd, on the bench and immediately referred to a charge of prejudice he had filed against the Brainerd jurist. Sandvig had previously presented affidavits of prejudice Judges C. A. Nye and W. L. Parsons and announced at this morning's trial that he would file similar complaints against every district judge in the state of Minnesota. The court held that Sandvig had exhausted the rights of filing affidavits of prejudice under the statutes of the state of Minnesota. Judge McClenahan thereby overruled the motion though he stated that Sandvig's claim would appear in the record.

Sandvig declared, as his own attorney in a libel suit preferred by the state, that he would make affidavits of prejudice against every state judge in an effort to attract the attention of the state legislature to the warfare he is conducting against "the drainage system" at present in use.

Jurors in the case were immediately drawn with prosecutor Paul Ahles acting for the state.

Women now possess full suffrage rights in twenty-one countries.

AMUSEMENTS

Comedy King Creates Lavish Drama Which Eclipses "Mickey," His Sensational Success

"Molly O," the Mack Sennett production distributed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., which is announced as the attraction for the New Park, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, is probably the most costly production that has been produced in the world during the past year. Mr. Sennett has made no announcement of the actual outlay of money which the completion of "Molly O" has demanded, but the known costs of the factors entering into it makes it almost a staggering total, without the incidental expenses which no one but the producer can know.

Despite the huge cost there is nothing extravagant about the attraction. The mere hugeness of it, as it was planned by Mr. Sennett called for a cost that is four or five times greater than the actual outlay on advertised "lavish" productions. Determined to make it a successor to "Mickey" that would eclipse that success as a box office attraction Mr. Sennett planned big from the start and kept to that program.

The first two moves made by Mr. Sennett shouldered him with a financial burden that was tremendous. Without attempting to negotiate with Mabel Normand, whom he had selected for the leading role, the producer telegraphed her an offer. The figure has not been made public, but Miss

Mabel Normand in Mack Sennett's "Molly O."

Normand has remarked: "It astounded me as much as did the first telegraphed offer of salary which Mr. Sennett telegraphed me. That time he said $125 a week and I accepted on the idea that he had written $25."

F. Richard Jones, director of "Mickey," was another person Mr. Sennett had decided upon. Mr. Jones was under contract to D. W. Griffith. Mr. Sennett went into negotiations for his services in the same big way that had characterized his treatment of Miss Normand, and within a few weeks Mr. Jones was back on the Sennett lot.

With the star and director all ready actual work on the production was started. Both were consulted as to sets, continuity and everything else connected with the production. The story carries the heroine from poverty stricken squalor to luxurious abundance, and the settings gave opportunity for the most splendid equipment ever afforded a production.

Viola Dana's Life Truly Rural While Appearing in "Home Stuff" Scenes

Viola Dana has gone back to the farm. For a whole month she spent all her time at the picturesque old Magnolia farm near Whittier, Calif.—the Quaker city of the West—working on "Home Stuff," her newest picture, written especially for her by Frank Dazey and Agnes Johnston. The production was directed by Albert J. Kelley. It will be seen tonight and Thursday at the Lyceum Theatre.

After scouring Southern California for a proper location for this rural story, the Magnolia farm finally was secured. It fitted the locale of "Home Stuff" as if designed for the purpose. The picturesque old farm house, barn and many outbuildings on the twenty-acre farm were built more than seventy years ago, but show no traces of decay. The farm has been occupied and kept up all the time. It was one of the first farms in the Whittier valley.

Despite the fact that Miss Dana arose at 5:30 in the morning in order to arrive at the farm at 8:30, as it was forty miles from her home in Beverly Hills, the little star had the time of her life.

There were cows, chickens, horses, dogs, cats, turkeys, geese, hogs, and everything that goes to populate a real farm at the Magnolia place, and Miss Dana was right at home. Miss Dana, who was raised on a farm in New York state, was no novice at the life she had to live in the story of "Home Stuff."

LENTEN SEASON REGULATIONS OF CATHOLICS

wise the regulations are the same as on days of Fasting only.

IV.

Dripping and lard may always be used in preparing food.

V.

The church excuses from the obligation of fasting:

1. All persons under 21 and over 59 years of age, irrespective of their physical condition.

2. All whose health would be seriously impaired, or who would be prevented by fasting from properly performing their ordinary duties. Consequently, the sick, convalescent, persons with weak constitutions, those whose work is of a laborious and exhausting character, women in delicate health and condition are not obliged to observe the law of Fasting.

3. Those excused or dispensed from Fasting may eat meat at all meals on meat days.

VI.

The church excuses from the obligation of Abstinence:

1. All children under the completion of their seventh year.

2. All who by reason of sickness and enfeebled health cannot observe the precept.

3. By a special indult granted to the bishops of the United States, dated March 15, 1895, working people who cannot easily observe the common law of the church are dispensed from the obligation of Abstinence on all days of the year, except Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday in Holy Week, the forenoon of Holy Saturday and Christmas Eve. This dispensation includes not only the individual working man in whose favor it is granted but all the members of his family as well.

VII.

The church expressly recommends that all who for any reason are excused or dispensed from Fasting or Abstinence practice mortification in eating and drinking according to their ability. They should also substitute for the Fast or Abstinence some pious work such as attendance at the Lenten devotions and the Stations of the Cross and Almsgiving to the poor.

VIII.

Those who doubt whether they are excused from the observation of Fasting or of Abstinence should consult their confessor, who is the proper judge in such questions, and is also empowered in individual cases to dispense from Fast and Abstinence for valid reasons.

IX.

By special indult the time for complying with the precept of Paschal Communion extends from the first Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday, inclusive.

J. P. McNICHOLAS,
Bishop of Duluth.

MABEL NORMAND RECOVERING HER SHATTERED NERVES

Star in "Molly O" Picture Endured a Terrible Strain in Taylor Case Pasadena, Calif., March 1—At the home near Pasadena petite, mischievous, Mabel Normand is slowly coming back to health. Following the William Desmond Taylor murder, the fact that she was the last seen in his company and was subjected to cross examination and repeated inquiries, brought her tender nerves to a breaking point and for a time her life was despaired of.

The little heroine of "Molly O" whose capers have captivated thousands nearly slipped over the divide from which no one, not even a moving picture, actress returns.

Doctors, specialists, nurses are at her bedside. In her delirium she thinks herself enacting many of the roles she successfully filled in pictures.
